Chr. Baldwin called the meeting to order.

Joe Ayala, Mayor of La Junta, shared that there will be an Adolescence Addiction Workshop being done by State for caregivers (parents, grandparents, counselors) on February 18-19, 2022, here in La Junta. State has aside set money to fund the program. He also attended with City Manager Rick Klein the Action 22, Pro 15, and Club 20 annual conference where rural counties and regions can come together to talk about bills that have passed and what ones are on the table. Rick Klein is the new chair. He expressed interest in having the commissioners attend the next meeting

Rebecca Goodwin with the Otero County Historic Preservation Board reported that they are working on a grant application, this grant will not need a match in funds. The Japanese American section in the Hillcrest-Valley View Cemetery is eligible for the national register and is considered a world design cemetery. There are three people working on the nomination process, they are Dr. Kathy Corbett, Jane Daniels, and Rebecca Goodwin. It takes approximately 300 to 350 hours to research and write a nomination. Ms. Goodwin is asking for signature on a letter of support for the project, they will also partner with the State Historical Fund's BIPOC initiative. The fact that the Governor of Colorado would not allow Japanese American citizens of Colorado to be interred in the camps, during WWII, is just one of the stories unique to our area and needs to be preserved. The amount of the grant is $45,000.00.
